DAN Q THE FACING MARVEL WINS.

Another season's record went at Washington Park yesterday, when Dan Q stepped a mile in the three-year-old pace in 2:11½. His race was one of the features of a very good day's sport over a lightning fast track.

All four of the races were stakes. Dan Q won the Sidewheel very smartly from good company. He is no bigger than a pony—scant 14.3—and weighs but 650 pounds, but reeled off his three heats sharp and cleanly, driven by Al Thomas, who formerly trained for A. J. Caton, of Chicago.

The New York crack, Baron Crisp, won the $3,000 Chicago stake in impressive style, never being in trouble, although forced to step in 2:12½, which clipped three seconds from his mark. Drone and Kodras had a hot brush for second money, but Hickok's green mare—and a clever green one she is—got it.

John Kelly was also to the front again in the Juvenile stake, which he won with his name sake, Directum Kelly, a charming and a rasping good colt, who outclassed his field. He will make a racehorse.

The $2,000 Calumet stake was cheap, although a good race for Planet, as it was his maiden race and he won easily, Starr driving him in faultless style. Bessie K was distanced for running in the second heat. The summary:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Joe Piggott, a fair California boy, who rides for A. B. Spreckels, is coming East to ride for Ed. Corrigan.

Mr. August Belmont is to send his best horses to England in the fall to get acclimated and race in the 1897 English classics.

Handspring is on the shelf. There is not any truth in the crazy stories of his complete break down. The colt showed signs of a quarter crack and was laid up.

Tom Griffin bought a yearling colt by Judge Murray—Spinster, brother to Despot and The Bachelor for $125 last week. Ed Corrigan now owns the colt. He gave Griffin $50 and the purchase price.

Col. Jacob Ruppert of New York, will retire from the turf via the auction sale avenue in July. Mr. Easton will probably sell the horses. Gotham and Counter Tenor are the best. Mr. Ruppert has not profited by his turf investment. Ajax cost him $10,000 and St. Domingo $30,000.

The thin and sensational dabbler in a racing news way are after Henry of Navarre nowadays and declare that his racing days are numbered because of a developing splint on "the cannon bone of his right knee." Such an infirmity is a deep joke to the student of horse anatomy.

Phil Dwyer is seeking a match for the great three-year-olds, such as Requitall, Hastings, Handspring, Ben Brush, Ben Eder, Margrave, Prince Lief, Shakespeare II, probably Crescendo and possibly one from the Santa Anita Stable. His Brooklyn Jockey Club would add $10,000 to a sweepstakes of $500 each for a race at 1¼ miles in the fall.

The Police News of Boston, an economically operated publication of prurient suggestion and clumsiness, prints a page out of the elderly stock order of a fight between women at the Lakeside track. Such a fight never occurred. It is a matter for regret that there is no medium of pinching publishers who use such villainous matter, knowing that it does not mirror the facts.

The periodical literary spasms of "Hyder Ali" in the Dispatch against Indiana racing are amusing and riddlesque, though untrue and damaging. Of course there is a purpose behind them all. When Indiana track racing was really bad, Cary, or "Hyder Ali" was in harness and silent. Now, that it has grown to health, he's out of harness, at least so far as the tracks are concerned, fulminative and false of statement. The vitals of it all can but be interesting. They will be gathered and placed on exhibition.

George Campbell, who has been backing the racing firm of McNaughton & Muir ever since they first became wealthy horse owners, and who furnished the money when they bought Semper Lex, Judge Denny and others last fall, must have become tired of holding the bag, and yesterday attached their stable on a claim of $5,000, money due him as his share of the horses' winnings. They had intended to ship their horses to Milwaukee to race at the meeting there, and Mr. Campbell hearing of it, attached, so as to keep them from leaving the State until his claims have been settled.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Overnight Indexed Charts and Entries.

There are many calls for DAILY RACING FORM's indexed entries. Hereafter they will be furnished at office at 50 cents per track at 9:30 p. m. or sent at subscriber's expense by special messenger at 50 cents per set and messenger fees. A chart of the days racing at the track they cover can be delivered with them for 50 cents more.

ELUSIVE WINS ANOTHER RACE.

The card at Sheffield yesterday was an attractive one, and that and the warm weather brought out a large crowd. The track was fast. The principal events were a mile and a quarter race, a five and a half furlongs event in which some speedy ones were entered, and a handicap steeplechase, the first which has ever been run at the Indiana tracks.

The steeplechase course, which has been laid out in the inner field, is fairly calculated to test a horse's jumping powers. The principal obstacles are a water jump, a bank, a post and rails, and a double, all well in sight of the grand stand, the minor jumps being on the far end. The finish is on the regular track. There were seven starters, and Miles Standish was favorite. Cunarder led over the water jump, passing the stand, and cleared the bank in advance. Then My Luck took the lead and showed the way over the post and rails and the double, which all took in good style, with Hercules second. In the turn for the second half, Hercules went the wrong side of a flag, but kept on. My Luck kept in front, winning by eight lengths, with Hercules second, a length and a half in front of Cunarder, who was ten before Miles Standish. Hercules was disqualified for going out of the course.

Elusive was the favorite for the mile and a quarter, with Marcel well backed. Ashland made the running for the first half with Elusive second. At the three-quarters Sullross, Ashland and Elusive were heads apart, but before the mile Dorsey sent Elusive out and she soon led by three lengths with Marcel and Sullross racing together. The filly kept in front the rest of the journey, Dorsey easing her up and winning by half a length from Sullross with Marcel a poor third. The time 2:07¼ beat the State record a quarter of a second.

In the five and a half furlongs Rubberneck made the running into the stretch. At the eighth pole Hi Henry swerved and caused Rubberneck to interfere with May Fern. Lollie Eastin however had the race in hand and won handily by a length in State record time.

Onalaska whose first appearance it was since the Indiana Derby, well ridden by Sullivan, captured the opening event by a neck from Starbeam with Gnnwad third.

Brown Eyes the favorite had no difficulty in winning the maiden 2-year-old race; his most dangerous opponent, Michael McInerney, getting off badly.

Merry Monarch won the last race handily from Revenue with Springtime a good third.

W. M. Rogers, of the Elkton Stock Farm Stable, has arrived at Sheffield with nine 2-year-olds and four other horses. Dan Lamarey with Tola, Second Attempt and others and Mr. Cody with Romance has also reached the Indiana tracks.

Jockey W. Ham reached here yesterday and will ride at Sheffield.

Waukesha's Reasonable Luxury.

Tired turfman who needs reasonably priced luxury and a rest, should go to the "Saratoga of the West"—Waukesha—and its noble hotel, the Fountain Spring House.

May Fern will be hard to beat next out. Her race was a good one. Hi Henry swerved all over the track and Rubberneck bore in when the pinch came.
